CLS360 Pty. Ltd. is committed to bringing to the market the most up-to-date, evidence-based research and academic discoveries pertaining to the measurement, development, and impact of leadership and employee behaviour. Our Certification Program is specifically designed to educate and equip consultants—be they internal or external to their organisations—to maximise their clients' outcomes.

Following are the details of our 2017 CLS360 and CBS360 Certification Program.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Aim:

Our Certification Program equips and educates professionals with the latest research, tools, and practices using the CLS360 Pty. Ltd. diagnostics. The program certifies an individual in the use of the CLS360 and CBS360 diagnostics.

Components:

There are three components to our Certification Program:

1. Certification Enrolment—this is the initial phase of the process, which is designed to ensure applicants have the required prerequisites for the program.
2. Certification Training—this component includes all of the workshops and action learning components in the program within a nine-week period.
3. Certification Recognition—this is aimed at recognising Certified Consultants' on-going use of the CLS360 and CBS360 diagnostics by automatically recertifying Certified Consultants once appropriate requirements have been met and rewarding the Certified Consultants along the way.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Includes but is not limited to the following:

- Coaches, trainers, and consultants
- OD, HR, and L&D professionals
- Psychologists

CERTIFICATION TRAINING

The Certification Training involves three workshops with action learning components in between:

1. Certification 1 (C1) Workshop (1 day)
2. Action Learning Case Studies Part 1 (4 weeks)
3. Certification 2 (C2) Workshop (2 days)
4. Action Learning Case Studies Part 2 (4 weeks)
5. Certification 3 (C3) Workshop (1 day)

Participants need to successfully complete all components of the Certification Training to graduate as a Certified Consultant.
